HAMEC speaker

Dan Schwarz Ph.D.

Monday, November 3rd at 7:00 PM

Join HAMEC for a webinar as Dr. Dan Schwarz shares the powerful story of his mother's survival during the Holocaust. After fleeing Belgium for southern France in 1940, her family was arrested and deported to various concentration camps, including Auschwitz, where they were murdered in 1943.

Dan's mother and her sister escaped to Switzerland, where they remained until the end of the war. She later served in the IDF before marrying Michael Schwarz and immigrating to the United States in 1957.
